“HSR Initial OHS Training”

Description
HSR representatives have a vital role in workplace OHS and under the Occupational Health and Safety Act 2004 (OHS Act) their role and responsibilities are well recognised.

This course is essential for HSRs and others who are interested in ensuring that their workplace is complying with the OHS Act 2004 and providing the best and safest OHS outcomes for their workforce.

Duration
5 days

Content
Course content includes:
- interpreting the OHS legislative framework and its relationships to the HSR and the workplace,
- identifying key parties, their legislative obligations and duties,
- establishing representation in the workplace,
- participating in consultation and issue resolution,
- representing the designated work group,
- issuing a Provisional Improvement Notice (PIN) and directing the cessation of work.

Outcome
At the end of the course, participants should:
- understand and effectively exercise their HSR power,
- gain knowledge of protections and entitlements under the OHS Act 2004,
- gain confidence, skill and knowledge to represent their designated work group and
- improved OHS efficiency to help make their workplace safer.

Suit to
This practical course is designed for HSRs and deputy HSRs, Managers, Supervisors, Health and safety committee members and other people involved with health and safety in the workplace.

Dates
20, 21, 22 & 24 March, 2017
3, 4, 5, 6 & 7 April, 2017
28 April, 5, 12, 19 & 26 May 2017
19, 20, 21, 26 & 27 June, 2017

How to enrol
Google https://shortcourses.rmit.edu.au/
Click A-Z
Click “H” and open course

Short courses 9925 8111
Email: enquiries@rmit.edu.au

Fees
$990.00

Related short courses
HSR Refresher OHS Training.