Fashion Styling

- Fashion Styling
- How to be a Personal Stylist
- Sustainable Fashion Styling and Clothes Swap

Fashion and Textiles

shortcourses.rmit.edu.au
Fashion Styling

Course code: S350345 | Brunswick campus
6 x 1 evening per week | 6–9pm | $790
6 x Saturday mornings | 10am–1pm | $790

An insider’s guide to the role of the stylist today. Learn about being an interpreter of fashion, from a professional industry-renowned stylist.

This course introduces the different areas a stylist can be involved in, including photo shoots for fashion and homewares, coordinating fashion shows, wardrobe styling for television or film and personal wardrobe styling.

Content
- How a stylist gains their knowledge, profiling of famous stylists.
- Successful photo shoots – different mediums, preparation.
- Fashion shows – from concept to execution.
- Stylist role in visual merchandising.
- Wardrobe styling for television commercials, TV shows and film.
- Personal styling and celebrity dressing.
- Practical hands-on activities to explore aspects of styling, including exploration of mood boards, photo shoot set-ups etc.

Outcome
By the end of the course you’ll have a realistic awareness of the role of the stylist in its many different forms. You’ll have been exposed to what it’s like to work as a stylist and will have participated in some styling projects including a photo shoot.

Suited to
This course is suited to those who are interested in becoming a stylist and would like to know more of what it entails. It would also interest fashionistas that love fashion and would like to explore an aspect of the industry under the guidance of an experienced professional.

Enquiries and Enrolments
Tel. +61 3 9925 8111
Email: enquiries@rmit.edu.au
shortcourses.rmit.edu.au

How to be a Personal Stylist

Course code: S350384 | Brunswick campus
5 x Saturday mornings | 10am–1pm | $490

Do you appreciate a great sense of style and want to advise others on how to ‘wear it well’? Learn about being an interpreter of fashion and how to advise others on what to wear and how to wear it to fabulous effect, from a professional industry-renowned stylist.

Content
- Communicating ideas and making suggestions using appropriate language and terminology.
- Understanding people’s needs and wants.
- Body shape.
- accessorising.

Outcome
You’ll gain confidence in how to communicate fashion ideas with others and how to put together stylish looks for optimum outcomes.

Suited to
This course is ideal for retail assistants who want to finesse their techniques for offering fashion advice to customers, or for people who want to learn more about their own personal style and how to get the most from it.

Sustainable Fashion Styling and Clothes Swap

Course code: S350407 | Brunswick campus
1 Saturday morning | 10am–2pm | $140

This course is focused on helping you reduce fashion waste and simultaneously maintain a stylish wardrobe. Participants of this course will learn from a practical demonstration how to do style magic by using one garment to create five different types of outfits for five different types of occasions. There will be a clothes swap as part of this course – for you to acquire pieces that you’ll use to practice and create your own personal restyled outfits. You’ll keep the clothes you acquire from the clothes swap.